Unlock Your Destiny With The Book of Life

Introduction to this Book

IF YOU ARE HERE THE NUMBERS HAVE BEEN CALLING YOU.

"Any book written in a language other than symbolic, must in the course of time become nearly non-understandable through changes of language and meaning of words, to say nothing of loss through translations from translations, etc. But symbols are the same in all tongues and among all peoples." - Olney H. Richmond, Author of the Mystic Test Book

This book is for the seekers of deeper wisdom and ancient truths that can only be found by looking within. To look within we must first be awakened. The awakening begins with symbols that trigger you into curiosity about existential truths. The purpose of this book is to point you to those truths, to activate your curiosity, and ignite your devotion to looking within. This book is only a reference designed to accompany the Advanced Quantum Numerology Course taught by Joy Kingsborough. You cannot understand these pages without an initiation into the system called the Book of Life. If you have somehow accessed a copy of this book and would like more guidance to it's meaning and use please contact joy@joykingsborough.com or visit our website at QuantumNumerologyTraining.com.

YOU ARE ABOUT TO LEARN A SYSTEM SO SACRED THAT OUR ANCESTORS WENT TO EXTRAORDINARY LENGTHS TO PROTECT IT.

Dedication

This book is dedicated to all of the students who came before me, who paved the way for me to discover its magic today.

I would like to offer deep gratitude to all of the students who have supported my interpretations of this wise system of symbols. A special thank you to the Mastery Students of 2022: Arlene Pe Benito, Cindy Van Arnam, Elizabeth Schaeffer, Jennifer Kohler, Jessica Cerrato, Julia Byrne, Michele Laine, and Shelly Anderson, without whom this book would not exist. Without your devotion and unquenchable thirst for more I might never have dug as deeply into the Book of Life as I did with each of you. You have inspired and surprised me with your curiosity, creativity, and insights. The impact you have made on this body of work, through this text, and in your contributions to your clients is beyond words.

I would also like to thank my publisher Jennifer Sparks who believed in me, cheered me on and never let me quit this project.

In Love and Gratitude,

Joy Kingsborough

A Note to Students

In this book, which accompanies the course, we are exploring the wisdom of the Book of Life through the playing cards as a predictive system of intuitive readings. You will discover which suit you came to master, your 7 karmic Lessons, and the 1 key to freeing yourself from karma all together. Once you discover these aspects of yourself, you are then presented with 4 unique gifts to experience everything you want in this lifetime. These gifts are your prosperity codes and are only available to you when you are willing to receive them. The system helps you see the path of Karmic lessons that has been laid out before you as well as the opportunities for initiation and advancement in a world of infinite possibility, living as your immortal self.

You are invited to discover this system in each of its unique layers.

Layer 1: Learn the Book of Life through the lens of Self Awareness and the suit of Hearts. Fall in love with the system and what it mirrors to you. Fall in love with your own chart. Spend the first month learning the cards and reflecting on their influence in your experience. Explore the Spiritual and Life Spreads, noting where your pattern began and what meaning that holds for you.

Layer 2: Learn the Book of Life through the lens of the Intellectual Knowledge and the suit of Clubs. Learn the mechanics of the spreads, the planetary influences, and the nuance of interpretation. Here you are familiarizing yourself with how to access the information you need. You will build a foundation for later. It is advised that, during this phase of learning, you allow yourself space to practice and follow the step-by-step instructions. Deeper meaning of this system will come later. This is the time for knowing where to get the information you need, how to assemble a report, and what the positions mean. Takes notes and keep this book near you.

Layer 3: Learn the Book of Life through the lens of Physical Matter and the suit of Diamonds. This is when you practice the fundamentals of the system with others. Work with a partner or invite clients who are willing to help you practice the steps of the system. Offer readings to as many people as possible during this learning phase. You will active a deeper intuitive connection with the Book of Life through practice and practice alone. No efforting is required during this phase, simple willingness and perseverance will reap massive results. Give yourself 10,000 hours of practice before you attempt to measure your success. For most readers, this phase is 6-12 months.

Layer 4: Learn the Book of Life through the lens of Higher Meaning and the suit of Spades. Just when you think you have it and your readings are creating massive impact there is more to discover. The discovery at this stage requires a deep inquiry from within you and a willingness to see everything you have learned through new eyes. Be open to discovering why the charts are layered in the 91 spreads and how each spread works with you in every moment of your life to free you from the spell of unconsciousness. To know the system at this layer is to surrender your ego to a higher awareness and to being open to not knowing where it will take you; to being curious about what you don't understand; and, being willing to transcend all previous beliefs about the Book of Life, your life and the greater purpose for humanity.

THE HIDDEN CODES

These codes unlock the 4 Kingdoms of wisdom and direct humanity in the development and advancement of their true self. These codes are: Emotional, Mental, Physical and Spiritual.

Humanity was given all of the codes to thrive by an ancient, forgotten society more than 22,000 years ago. Once suppressed by those who were afraid of its power, who feared losing control over others, is now re-emerging through a mystic renaissance and an unearthing of new information around the world. In the 1800s these codes began to emerge from the Mystic Brotherhood and the Order of the Magi through temple lectures made available to a handful of initiated participants. These secret societies authorized the release of some of this information in the 1980s, inviting seekers to decode their meanings and activate an initiation or awakening of humanity.

While many ancient resources remain locked away in private family libraries of descendants of these secret orders, the foundation is available. The foundation is all that is needed to access the wisdom of the Universe, which is available to all who seek it through their natural intuitive faculties.

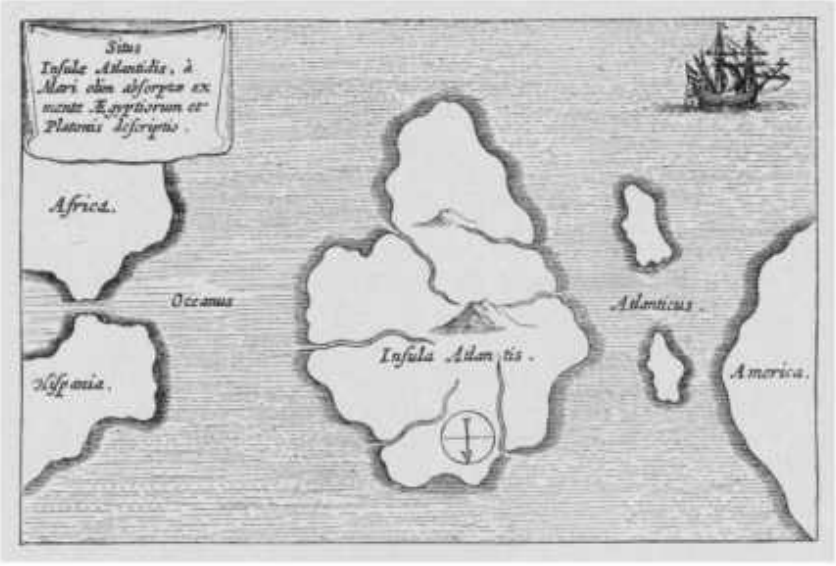

Kingdom of the 4 Rivers

HEART	Emotional Wisdom	West	Water
CLUB	Mental Wisdom	East	Air
DIAMOND	Physical Wisdom	North	Earth
SPADE	Spiritual Wisdom	South	Fire

The Kingdom of the 4 Rivers, according to Olney Richmond, was Atlantis. Atlantis was a large continent that is now mostly below the ocean with remnants of this ancient land now islands, called the Azores. This continent once held a thriving, highly advanced civilization that was governed by 4 Kings. Each of the Kings was responsible for representing the 4 aspects of human development: Emotional, Mental, Physical and Spiritual. At the top-most point of the continent was a water source that poured fresh water in 4 directions: North, South, East and West. All streams flowing freely and abundantly into the ocean and returning to source (zero point). These directions became associated with each of the 4 Kingdoms of the 4 Rivers and eventually became associated with 4 unique symbols: Heart, Club, Diamond, and Acorn (now the Spade). Each symbol represented a direction, a philosophy for living, an elements, and a king to lead the development and advancement of their people.

When it came time for the land to shift and volcanos to erupt many of it's inhabitants were able to leave the continent and move to Africa, settling primarily in Egypt.

The "Thinking Codes"

The Thinking Codes arise from Zero and extend out into 9 Frequencies of thought. These frequencies of thought are represented by numbers and are used in most extraordinary ways throughout the book of life. The foundation of the system is built upon unique and powerful combinations of these numbers and govern these areas of experience.

ONE: There is 1 Joker, representing infinite potential of ascension and descension, rise and fall, the beginning and the end, all at once for the purpose of evolution.

TWO: There are 2 Grand Solar Spreads, representing the awareness of two worlds - order and chaos, spirit and material, immortality and mortality, day and night.

THREE: The Crown Line has 3 cards, representing the 3 days of transition between cycles when Winter and Summer Awaken during the Solstice. This is also the number that divides the seasons during the quadration of the cards.

FOUR: The Book of Life is quadrated into 4 piles, representing the 4 Rivers (Kingdoms, Seasons and Suits) within the deck.

FIVE: There are 5 visible and 5 invisible Planets, representing the seen and unseen worlds of influence and the choice that humans must make to ascend or descend.

SIX: The age of the first transmutation cycle and the first Karmic return.

SEVEN: There are 7 Karmic cycles before evolution is possible at age 49. The seven is the Divine code used to transmute all challenges through daily, weekly, monthly, yearly, 7-Day, 7-Week, 7 Year, 7-Season increments. These cycles, and the 7 itself, represent the Divine Timing Cycle, the true nature and order of change.

EIGHT: The card of our primary lesson (Pluto), representing THE KEY to transcending Karma in this Lifetime.

NINE: There are 9 Numbers, representing the completion of the numbers, the last of the unique frequencies of the One and the Force by which all numbers are reflected back to themselves. Division is shown to be an illusion, as all numbers divided by 9 are, in fact, themselves. Never more or less. The 9 signals rebirth of the self no matter where it presents itself.

FIND YOUR

BIRTHCARD

The Code for the Birth Card

As a secret system it was written in riddles and codes for only the devoted to uncover and understand. You will begin your journey by learning how to calculate your personal Birth (Sun) Card by the original method given to humanity by the Mystic Brotherhood and the Order of the Magi. You can learn more about this method in the Mystic Test Book by Olney H. Richmond.

To begin with this method, you will need to locate the Solar Values associated with each month and day. Solar Values represent solar alignments that were precisely recorded by the Atlanteans. To do so, locate the 6 digit number alongside your Month and Day on the charts below.

NOTE: Each card in the Book of Life (except the Joker) has a Solar Value, a Spot Value, a Suit Value and a Spirit Value. You will explore more on that later. The follow method will help you decipher the Card that represents your Birthday. The Values mentions above help us interpret their significance and purpose. This is the long way to determine a Birth Card. You will learn to do this with quicker methods.

Solar Values: Month Codes

January	161623	July	491281
February	266435	August	324824
March	334149	September	353658
April	498658	October	227944
May	597719	November	217412
June	693378	December	188169

Solar Values for the Day are on the following page.

Solar Values: Day Codes

1	157741	12	622346	23	386139
2	213144	13	491125	24	468758
3	256883	14	361848	25	683569
4	358942	15	236459	26	524160
5	461973	16	186886	27	362807
6	533819	17	169389	28	269494
7	616519	18	154727	29	246165
8	656370	19	221875	30	198536
9	722464	20	233538	31	163543
10	881872	21	274361
11	719547	22	376420

Now that you have your Month and Day Solar Values we will calculate the code needed to find your Birth Card. Use the following steps to calculate your Birth Card:

1. Find the Solar Value of the Month of Birth
2. Find the Solar Value of the Day of Birth
3. Add the Solar Values together
4. Find the Nth Root of the Solar Value.

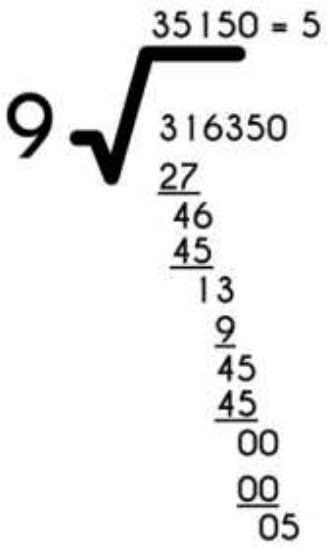

Example Calculation

Example: January 18

January has a Solar Value of 161623
The 18th of the Month has a Solar Value of 154727

161623
+154727

To find the Nth Root you will divide the answer by 9, reduce the answer and combine with the remainder. Pay close attention to following steps. 1. Reduce the whole number to a single digit. 2. Place the reduced answer AFTER the "remainder." See the following example.

The answer (05) represents a coordinate (location) in the Day Chart on the following page. The first digit of the answer is the row # and the second digit is the column number. For this example: 9 of Diamonds is the correct answer. This is the birth card for January 18. See if you get the same answer.

Finding a Birthcard: Modern Method

Calculating a Birthcard is one of the first things you will do for every person you read for. This is a faster method that was developed by the Order of the Magi more recently. This method points us to the Solar Value, which we will use a simple table to identify the answer.

This calculation is simple and can be done in 3 easy steps.

1

STEP ONE: MONTH

What month were you born? The number of that month (1-12) is multiplied by 2.

January	1 x 2 = 2
February	2 x 2 = 4
March	3 x 2 = 6
April	4 x 2 = 8
May	5 x 2 = 10
June	6 x 2 = 12
July	7 x 2 = 14
August	8 x 2 = 16
September	9 x 2 = 18
October	10 x 2 = 20
November	11 x 2 = 22
December	12 x 2 = 24

EXAMPLE:

January 18

2 + 18 = 20

STEP TWO: DAY

What day of the month were you born? We add the day number to the number you discovered in Step One.

3

STEP THREE: SOLAR NUMBER

To discover the Solar Number that was given to us in the Mystic Test Book by Olney Richmond, we use the number 55 and subtract the number we calculated in Step Two.

Example: 55-20 = 35

The Solar Value for this birthdate is 35.
Find this Solar Value on the chart below.
Again, our answer is the 9 of Diamonds.

SOLAR VALUES CHART
55 - (2*m + d) = Birth Card

	ACE	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	JACK	QUEEN	KING
♥	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
♣	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26

♠	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52

Example Chart: 3 of Spades Birthcard

Here is another example, looking at all of the possible birthdays that equal the Solar Value of 42.

January 11	2 + 11 = 13	55-13 = 42
February 9	4 + 9 = 13	55-13 = 42
March 7	6 + 7 = 13	55-13 = 42
April 5	8 + 5 = 13	55-13 = 42
May 3	10+ 3 = 13	55-13 = 42
June 1	12 + 1 = 13	55-13 = 42

55 - (2*m + d) = Birth Card

	ACE	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	JACK	QUEEN	KING

THE NUMBERS

& THE SUITS

Birth Card Interpretations

The following section offers this author's general interpretations of the Numbers followed by the interpretation of each of the suits. As an reader you will combine your experience with each of the numbers, the suits and the planetary positions (introduced later) to formulate your own interpretations. Previous students of the Book of Life have found significant benefit gained by reflecting on each of the cards in the deck one at a time over 52 days. This may help you become more familiar with each of the numbers and suits in a simple way. To integrate what you learn you will need to apply what you discover to regular readings for yourself and others.

All of the cards in the Book of Life have multiple meanings. Begin by learning the general meanings as they relate to the number and the suit. Later you will learn how to interpret the cards as people and events. On the following pages find the number of your card first. Read about the number and reflect on the characteristics of the number. Do the same for your suit.

Consider what gift you may be expressing in the world through this pattern. For example, as a 3 of Spades I interpret my gift as "creative inspiration for a higher purpose." I did not know how to live up to that gift at first, but my chart has guided me in what to do. Now, I see myself as the embodiment of creative inspiration and it flows more naturally. The success I experience is a direct reflection of the acceptance of who I am.

Your Birth Card does not reflect everything there is to know about your pattern. It is the starting point. Notice your first impressions and explore your thoughts with other students as you learn. It won't be long before clarity washes over you.

THE NUMBERS WANT YOU TO KNOW

1

There is something more to know, to see, or to hear. I can experience all that I want to be or do.

2

I can never be alone. The Divine is with me all the time and bringing me all that I desire.

3

I am seen, heard and understood by the Divine. What I have been focusing on is expanding now!

4

I am safe, stable, and abundant. Am I willing to lead from where I am? Can I love what is?

5

The change I want is available now. Will I choose a next step that is just for me?

6

I have created so much already. My gratitude is bringing more of what I really, really want.

THE NUMBERS WANT YOU TO KNOW

7

I am brave, I am powerful, and I am capable of more than I know. It's time to raise my values.

8

I am making an impact every day. I am leaving a legacy and more wealth is on the way right now!

9

My dreams are coming true and it is safe to say goodbye to the past now. Something is leaving that is meant to go. I am safe.

The Joker

Keywords: uncertainty, unknown, potential, infinite, none, curious, complete, now, play

The Zero is not a frequency in the way that the other numbers are. The Zero is the mother and the father of all creation and is the birth place for all potentials. It is not represented by a single experience, rather, it is all of them. This makes zero unknowable and yet so intimately familiar that you cannot not-know either. With the Joker you get a sense of simultaneous understanding of everything and nothing.

When the Joker is near all order is lost and pure potential is in your grasp. For this reason, you do not use with the Book of Life with the Joker included. The Joker was not part of the original Book, but was later added by game makers. The Brotherhood accepted the Joker as representation of 365th day of the year. However, when the Joker is in the deck it renders any reading invalid. The information revealed cannot and should not be interpreted as accurate. The Joker has a way of misleading and tricking the other cards into believing in things that may never happen. This is because the Joker cannot reveal a single potential as he sees all potentials at once and often selects the one that best matches his fancy. Anyone with the Joker as a Birth Card share similar traits and is best suited to follow their own path in life.

When you see the 0 arise in your daily life it is always an invitation to return to the infinite Divine oneness and start from scratch. It is time to release what you thought should or would happen and invite in the possibilities you have yet to discover. Your invitation is to be open, to be curious, to be unknowing, and to be willing to see anything that arises so that you might create something that the world has not yet seen. Your journey is about to begin.

The Frequency of One

Keywords: self, I am, begin, give, receive, between, fresh, new, possible, death/birth/re-birth, babies, seeds, starting points, gifts

The frequency of One is the guide at the begin of every journey. The One directs us to find others, allies and foes, along the way; all of whom are a reflection of the Self discovering it's mind, it's heart, it's pleasures, and it's purpose.

The One is the frequency of the Joker or archetypal Fool as he steps out of the infinite oneness on a journey for higher potentials. The One remembers being one with all that is, but feels independent, isolated and separate from something or someone. The One longs for more love, connection and experience and so it journeys out for more.

When the #1 arises in your experience you are being directed to listen for your hearts true desires. What journey do you want to be on? What do you want to create? Who do you choose to be? What do you choose to feel? to experience? Will you give your value to the world? Will you receive value in return? Will you stay lost in contemplation or will you venture forward? Will you heed the call to be, do and experience more?

When the #1 is accompanied by the #0 to make a 10 you activate infinite potential, and are being reminded to see how far you have come AND acknowledge that it is time to fulfill your dream at a new higher level. The beginning has become the end only to awakening you to a new beginning. You have been brought back to yourself to make a decision about whether you will have more of this experience. You are guided to choose again and this time, choose to be an expression of the self you have become, not the self you once were. It is time to witness your own evolution.

The One shows up for us in the Book of Life through the numbered cards as the Ace of Hearts, the Ace of Clubs, the Ace of Diamonds, and the Ace of Spades. The One evolves with us and arises as the 10 of each suits as well.

The Frequency of Two

Keywords: connection, choice, resources, access, communication, collaboration, union, balance, bridge, together

The frequency of Two guides you to come into union with others through your choices. As the Self continues it's discovery in love, health, wealth and purpose the two invites symbols in the form of other humans, animals, plants, numbers and shapes to assist in the understanding of who you are. The two represents the decision of who, what, when, where, and why you will travel in a direction.

Your integrity, beliefs and will create indecision or clarity depending on your self awareness and integrity. Will you choose to believe that the material things and people outside of you know what is right for you or will you choose to trust your own wisdom? What will you learn about yourself in your experiences with others?

The two is like the pied piper playing a beautiful tune that intoxicates you, to join paths with another, only to lead you to a mirror of yourself. The two brings you exactly who and what best reflects what you truly believe, perceive and are attached to experiencing. The two will show you if you if you are being led by illusions or truth. The two will show you if you are being led by fear or safety, hate or love, war or peace. The two will reveal your true nature and the vibration of what you are attracting at this time.

The two helps you fulfill the intentions, desires, and dreams you hold within you. The dreams need not be spoken as your body holds the wisdom of your unconscious and conscious thoughts and feelings. Your thoughts and feelings activate the Law of Attraction through resonance and your reality begins to manifest before your eyes.

When you see the #2 you are being nudged to choose again. Either more of the same or something different. You are being nudged to progress on your journey by aligning with energies that will not make it easier for you experience what you desire. You are being invited to notice who is around you. You may be ignoring support that has arrived or you are spending time with people who are no longer aligned with your journey. Either way, it is time to consider the impact of these connections and empower yourself to decide your own fate rather than give yourself over to chance.

The Two shows up for us in the Book of Life through the numbered cards as the 2 of Hearts, the 2 of Clubs, the 2 of Diamonds, and the 2 of Spades. The Two evolves with us and arises as the Jack of each suits as well.

The Frequency of Three

Keywords: creation, anxiety, movement, growth, abundance, nurturing, mothering, feminine principles, celebration, teamwork, intuitive leadership, potential energy

The frequency of Three is the energy of pregnancy. The three guides the creative incubation of your idea, your vision, your intentions while you nurture them into a more stable form where they have enough energy, systems, and structure to live on their own, outside of your mind-body. The three says, "your dream is now viable, but will take abundant care." Our creations are most sacred when the three is present. The three indicates kinetic potential of whatever you have been giving your energetic attention to.

When the farmer has been tending to the soil, planting seeds for food, and nurturing the field daily, the intention for growth can be fulfilled. It is now up to the Universe to align with the intentions of the farmer, the seeds, the land and the legacy of those they will feed. A co-creation is initiated and the outcome will be aligned with the strongest energetic will.

As humans you do your part by loving and believing and faithfully serving the intention. The outcome is out of your control, unless you choose not to participate at all and abandon the intention.

The three indicates what is being amplified and co-created. The three is the messenger for the universe, heralding a successful beginning. This is why the first three months of a human pregnancy are so sacred. Until the Mother, the baby, and the body are fully aligned with the Universe the pregnancy is uncertain.

It is the same with any creation. Until your mind, heart, body and Universe have found alignment there will be no manifestation. Ultimately, the three governs amplification and abundance of what is aligned (resonant, coherent, and harmonized). This is why you may read this cards as grief or celebration, as both emotional states are related to the amplification of the thoughts someone is navigating presently. The three is like an adjective and requires context, either from other numbers or from the feedback of the person you are reading for. What are they experiencing? What have they been focusing their mental and emotional attention on
- disappointment or gratitude?

The Book of Life includes the practical expression of the 3 through the numbered cards and the expansive power of the 12 through the court cards. The 12 is the higher expression of the 3, discovering creative potentials through conscious awareness and mastery of the frequency 3. The 1 + 2 come together to reveal the Queen, who mothers ideas, people and experiences into maturity. She carries the nurturing energy required to keep your dreams alive.

The Frequency of Four

Keywords: leadership, authority, power, movement, flow, luck, wealth, commitment, wedding/marriage, contracts, partnership, structure, form, gate, door, box

The frequency of Four comes from the energy of form, bringing structure to the formless. The Four is akin to a box that is created to hold what we desire for easier carrying and holding from one place to another or from one moment to another. It is the coming together of energy for a co-creative experience. The four is a container for an experience to be enjoyed for a time, cycle or season. The 4 is not meant to be contained, it is the container that holds continually changing conditions.

The Four is a frequency that is often misunderstood as stability. While stability is a great word to describe it, that is not quite accurate due to the fluid nature of the Four. The Four is more accurately felt as flow. Things are in movement when Four is present. The Four brings pipes, walls, buildings, creek beds, highways, and ocean floors. These are structures that things move upon, around and between. As a result they are always changing and being changed by the movement. They experience wear and tear and often need to maintain flexibility or to be restored.

Without movement the Four cannot hold its form. Look at any dilapidated building or forgotten roadway. No movement, no nurturing, no sustainability and so the Earth has reclaimed the space and moved in and through and around it instead. The Four often inspires people, in a physical way, to fight for more, effort against loss, and toil away doing things that will allow flow, without acknowledging the higher purpose of what they are doing - for the flow itself. The awakened Four recognizes that without Spirit, there is no flow and all that is built is for not. In other words, if there is no meaning or purpose behind what is built it is being built for death.

The Four helps you commit to an experience with others. In Universal Law, the Four is the decision to have the experience, not the decision to have the thing that provides the experience. The thing itself (what is built) is but a temporary coming together of material form to hold the experience and will be guided by the hand of the Universe (God, Divine or Source). If what is created comes from a decision to protect, save, hold or obscure you will experience a betrayal. If what is created comes from a decision to follow your inspiration (spirit in motion) for flow, partnership or collaboration you will experience success.

The Book of Life includes the practical expression of the 4 through the numbered cards and the expansive power of the 13 through the court cards. The 13 is the higher expression of the 4, discovering leadership potentials through conscious focus and mastery of the frequency 4. The 1 + 3 come together to reveal the King, not to get anything from the world, but of contributing a higher order and meaning. The 4 in the numbered cards represents building and commitment and the King represents scaling what was built to broaden the impact for more people.

Be alert, there may be interruptions mentally, emotionally, or physically that are just illusions. Slow down and invite love into your thoughts and into your heart before you proceed. Love will dissolve the illusions and reveal a clear direction.

The Frequency of Five

Keywords: change, play, community, awakening, pivot, course correction, freedom, , dance, argument, confusion, loss, abandonment, neglect, fear.

The frequency of Five signals change as the doorway to freedom. This change can be felt in the body as stillness inspired to dance. This change can be felt in the environment as you are inspired to move or travel. This change can be felt in the community or collective as you are invited to notice new people. This change can be felt in the heart as you experience something or someone leaving your experience. This change can be felt in the form of thoughts, ideas, and perspectives as new information is integrated. The change being inspired is showing you a pathway to more freedom of expression.

The five inspires choice to help you open yourself to the experience of what you truly want. The five offers feedback about what isn't working for you in relation to your desire. Whatever it is that you want you are either open or closed to the possibility of it happening now.

The five represents the five fingers on each hand, the five toes on each foot and the five openings in the body. Are my ears open to hear new information about my dream? Is my mouth open to nourishment? Are my hands open or closed indicating safety or defending? Are my feet prepared to move from one place to another? The five inspires movement, but usually in those places you feel the most stuck or stagnant.

For example, if you want wealth but you hold your hands closed you may be closed to giving or receiving the flow of wealth. You may be closed to the experience of life. You may need to make a new choice about how you want to experience life. Would you prefer to be open to abundance or closed. The five indicates that it is time for this change now so that you can experience your dream unfolding. The five can be your invitation to pause and make sure you are headed in the direction you want to go. The five will point you to resistance in your mind, your heart and your body so that you can choose to think, feel, or do things differently.

In the Book of Life the 5 indicates the beginning of spiritual awakening. When we reach the influence of the 5 cards we are being guided to leave behind any surface level thinking, feeling and behaving to take responsibility for our next highest expression. It is time to be our own catalyst of change for the story we are living, to edit the story, heal our conditions, and be our own hero - and ultimately become the creator of a new story. As a result, the 5 represents the door of awakening but fear may stop you from walking through it. These cards require courage, faith, and integrity. Only those of honest intentions will pass through. You cannot fool the Universe and the 5 is the gatekeeper.

The Frequency of Six

Keywords: harmony, family, higher perspective, attachment, co-dependance, love, nostalgia, arrival, outcome, beauty, acceptance, forgiveness, gratitude.

The frequency of Six is connected to the energy of the three. The six says, "you're getting closer to what you want - let me show you." You begin to see evidence of what you created with the three as it manifests at the six. You see what you have been thinking and feeling about for a while. You now see what you have been manifesting for years alongside the early outcomes of newer manifestations. You see how the world has changed or has remained the same. You can experience the six as a repeating pattern with no end, like a loop in time, a broken record, or a pattern of fixed beliefs.

The six is often associated with karma due to the underlying purpose as the revealer of inner truths. You cannot deny your inner thoughts when you the fruits of your labors lie right in front of you. What you have been manifesting is here, undeniable and asking for your attention. The six is asking you to give meaning to what you see. Do you love it and want more of it or is it time to consider a change?

The six does not care what you decide the meaning will be, instead it seeks only to reveal it to you so that you can progress to whatever is next. The six is the messenger that indicates a choice is coming. Will you choose to continue this way or that way? The six governs the present moment and the willingness to integrate your past experiences and future dreams into a conscious moment of the "now." The Universe wants you to know that to have what you want you must accept that you have it. You must feel it and experience it now.

Will you see the world from a higher perspective or continue on as is? Will you take responsibility for your role in creation and really look at what you have created? Am I attached to what I think I can see? What about the sides of this situation I can't see? If I could see this situation from a higher view, would I change my mind more easily? This is the invitation of the six, to see what is and to accept that more than what you see is also here. Imagine a 6 sided cube. What you see is based on your viewpoint. If all you can see it the front of the cube you may only perceive three sides and yet, there are three sides out of view, not to mention the infinite potential of what may be inside.

The Book of Life demonstrates the 6 through each of the four suits. The six is now showing you a reality beyond what you can see with our eyes, hear with our ears, taste with our mouths, or touch with our hands. The 6s invite you to accept your new reality and integrate a new perspective. What you couldn't see before is now coming into view and is ripe for integration and acceptance. This can feel like a pause or slowing of events. You will be on the move again soon, so take heart, nurture yourself, and gather resources for what is next.

Pause, look in all drections and then choose the path that aligns with ALL of YOU! You will have to trust yourself, especially if cars are honking or you feel distracted by the flow of traffic around you (e.g. what others want or say is best). You are being nudged where you have not gone before.

The Frequency of Seven

Keywords: Divine Timing, Defending, Resistance, Faith, Values, Teaching, Truth, Trust, Integrity, Co-Creation, Vision, Spiritual Work, Labor, Growth

"Trust your intuitive heart." - Ram Dass

The frequency of Seven feels like a test of faith or a challenge presented by the Universe to get to the next stage of your journey. In many ways this is true, but it is not the Universe testing you, it is you calling yourself higher and the Seven is your sign to trust. This is the frequency of the "up-level." Like the sword in the stone, only those who trust and believe in themselves; only those who are acting with honest intentions, will succeed in removing the stone (the obstacle) and claiming the throne (the dream, goal, or outcome).

The Seven indicates a choice in front of you, to stay where you are or to keep going in the direction of your intentions and succeed even if it looks like you will. You can have what you want now, but you must travel on faith, moving in only one direction, from this point forward. Don't stop. Keep believing your dream is here. Keep loving the journey and do not let fear rise up or distractions pull you away.

When you take the next step you will build faith and trust in yourself that will propel you toward your dream experiences. The Seven indicates that you are almost there, but there is just a bit more road to travel and you will have to face the reasons that have held you back before. The number 7 has been used as a reminder of the cycle of growth and the stages of belief that must be overcome for us to succeed. The 7 Dwarfs, the 7 planets of the Birth Chart, and the 7 sins were metaphors for the Divine Timing cycle that challenges you with 7 different obstacles or tests of faith. Are you too sleepy to do what's needed? Too grumpy? Too bashful? and so on...

Do not let the temptation of defending your old story, the fear of losing what you have already built, or the uncertainty of what is to come on this new path divert your attention from your dream. Hold steady.

The Seven is one of the most Divine numbers in the Book of Life as this is the frequency of intuitive growth and spiritual mentorship. You are reminded now that you are in partnership with the Universe and there is nothing to fear. You are being guided and the Divine walks beside you. You cannot see the work being done on your behalf or the support that is all around you but you can feel it and know the Divine presence within and around you.

The Book of Life brings the frequency of Seven through each of the suits. Each one points to the trust needed with yourself, those around and the path ahead. You may feel like there are multiple directions ahead, but if you look closely at the cards you will see only one way to go.

The Frequency of Eight

Keywords: Power, Momentum, Force, Inertia, Compound Interest, Speed, Intensity, Sunset, Evening, Infinite, Expansion, Prosperity, Harmony

The frequency of Eight is often felt with a sense of speed, urgency, or intensity. The Eight is acceleration, momentum, and constancy. This energy feels like it could go on like this forever, but it won't. You can get lost in an activity you love when the Eight is near. Hours could pass in what feels like minutes. You can feel a sense of time running out or that there are not enough hours in the day for everything that needs to get done.

This intensity can be felt as too much or not enough. Both are flipsides of the same coin. You are simply nearing completion. You are near the point of fulfillment and have taken this task, or experience near to the end. Whatever manifestation you have been creating, you will soon see the benefits of your time. You will soon discover if what you have been creating has been worth the time and attention.

When the Eight arises you may already feel how close you are to what is next. You can feel a project coming to an end or coming to an evolution. What you are doing can only go on for so long before it will change. The Eight is the inertial force that amplifies the impact of the energy you are expending. Every action you take is being multiplied by the Universe and you can expect to harvest your results soon.

The Eight in love is the intensity of emotions that have reached a peak state and will soon change, helping you to harmonize and integrate to a new level of comfort and ease. You may be entering a new stage in a relationship or a relationship may be ending.

The Eight in career is the creation of products that will soon be taken to market to be sold. The Eight in wealth is a long term investment that may now be doubling in value. The Eight in a spiritual context is the creation of impact that is spreading to more people, more places, and in more ways.

The Eight in the Book of life is seen in each of the four suits of the deck. Notice the pattern of the symbols and the space they take up. The Eight brings fullness and capacity and power to any reading. The Eight represents the feeling of closure and completion that is fast approaching. The Eight is like the sunset at the end of the day. Sometimes we wish the day would never end and other times we can't wait to close our eyes and begin again.

Stop, ask yourself: "Do I want more of this?" You can't fool the Universe. Your love is manifesting your conditions. Do you love what you see?

The Frequency of Nine

Keywords: Completion, Hermit, Introspection, Reflection, Inner Awareness, Awakening, Enlightenment, Acknowledgement, Death, Ending, Release, Let Go

The frequency of the Nine is the final stream of consciousness in our series and is the frequency that brings us back to Zero. The Nine offers, first and foremost, a reflection of the journey you have just been on. Who did you become? What did you learn? Are you satisfied, fulfilled, and complete or do you feel restless, lacking, and depleted?

The Nine offers you a choice point at the end of the metaphorical (or literal) road. Will you continue on the same path for an expanded version of what is or will we abandon our time, attention and focus on what was so that it can be returned to the Universe for other uses? Will you hold on or let go?

Whatever your decision you are also asked to retain the wisdom so that it may be applied to the next journey, whatever that journey may be. Are you grateful for what you have experienced? Are you caught in your Ego or your Higher Mind? Do you value yourself or do you seek validation through or from others? Do you love yourself or do you seek love from others? Do you trust in the path ahead?

How you navigated the energies that came before this moment - especially the Five and the Seven will now be reflected in your experience of the Nine.

Nine is the Uroboros Snake that consumes it's own tale, symbolizing a cycle is complete but infinite. The Nine is the graduation of an experience or stage of life. The Nine is the return to self. The Joker ventured out on a path to discover itself more and has now reached the journey's end and a time of reflection. What did you learn? Who are you now? The Nine offers that reflection for everyone. When the Nine is present you are seeing yourself in a new way.

The Nine is the completion of a story that never really ends. We come to the close of one chapter only to turn the page and begin again. The direction we take from here is dependent upon which perspective we have. Was the journey worth it, are you worth it, can you keep going? Don't hold on too tightly to the things and the people in your life, but grab ahold of the wisdom you learned with them, and forge ahead.

What the Suits Mean

Now that you have learned to interpret the meaning of the numbers of the cards you will layer in the awareness of the suits and later will explore the other elements (planets, spreads, and timing). The suit will tell you more about the specific characteristics and life areas that you or your client is being challenged or blessed by. Once you learn the cards themselves you can explore the position the card is in for the reading. The position will guide the overall interpretation.

For example, a 2 of Diamonds in Pluto is a very different interpretation than a 2 of Diamonds in Venus. The first is a challenge to face and the later is a potential client or new friend. This helps you narrow the infinite possible interpretations down to the specific details that help to answer your questions more precisely. You will notice that your intuition will naturally pull your attention to certain aspects of each card. The more you learn about the card the more you will enhance your ability read; however, intuition will always be the most important part of your interpretations. Be alert to your internal desires and the difference between what you "hope the card means" and what your intuition is pointing you to see or feel or understand.

Your skill with reading will develop over time, so remember to be patient and balance your intellectual study of the cards with practical use, to develop trust. A balanced reader has skill in the mechanics of the system, the intellectual background of the system, personal experience with the system, and the intuitive filter of the higher mind. Do not fall into the ego trap of judging yourself for feeling behind or not learning fast enough. This is a rich and robust system that is not intended to be fully understood at once. If you think you have it after a few months, you may have closed your mind to learning and will find it easier to grow with a beginner's mind every day. If you feel like you do not have it, trust that you have all that you need for today. People will be brought to you to help you develop. Those who can hear what you have learned so far will arise, and those who are ready for more will come to you as you know more.

As you begin your journey with the suits, begin with an exploration of their natural order, also called the Natural Book of Life or Spiritual Spread. Remember to remove the Joker from the deck before using your cards for ANY reading. Once the Joker is removed and set aside, the natural order begins with the suit of Hearts, followed by the suit of Clubs, followed by the suit of Diamonds, and finally, the suit of Spades. The Ace is at the bottom of the suit, followed by the 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, Jack, Queen and finally, the King on the top. This is the suggested order of our conscious awakening and personal development.

When you are first beginning your journey you may be inspired to focus your interpretations in the mental, emotional and physical aspects of life as you gain more experience with the higher self (intuitive/spiritual) aspects. To be transformed by the Book of Life requires a journey of self awareness. You and your clients will be those who fall into the category of "seeker," on the journey in relationships, money, health, career or spiritual awakening.

The following pages will tell you more about each suit from an intellectual exploration. Add what you discover through your own practical experience with the cards and you will discover a whole new world of power and potential is opened to you and to those you read for!

On the following page, is a deeper look into the personality of these suits and how they communicate with the reader.

How the Suit Expresses Itself

The Hearts represent the fullness of love available to all, limitlessly, that pours down into the self when we are in the high-side of the suit. The love in me is the only love that is available to me. When I am looking for love outside of myself I pinch off the flow from the Universe and experience a depletion of flow and a longing to get love from outside of me.

The Clubs represent the awareness of pattern, thought and mind. The shape is a reflection of the heart, filled with love, opening up to acknowledge the connection to the mind as a third semi-circle in the original heart shape. The heart flips upside down and expand to make space for the brain and the intellect. What you love, the mind will now bring about into the physical experience. When we get out of sync with ourselves the mind tries to tell the heart what to feel and this creates chaos.

The Diamonds represent the world of matter and value that humans interpret as the physical world. The matter outside of you is an expression of what matters inside you. When you experience a Diamond It's time to see the reflection of your mind and heart in the mirror. You cannot change the mirror by altering the mirror, that is only a distortion. The high and low side look the same - always a mirror of you.

The Spades merge the hearts, the clubs, and the Diamonds into a single shape that now channels the wisdom of all of them into a single focus of attention. When a spade arises, take what you have learned so far and imagine bringing it all together and expressing it just a bit higher, more expansive, more focused than before.

The Suits: A Spectrum of Expression

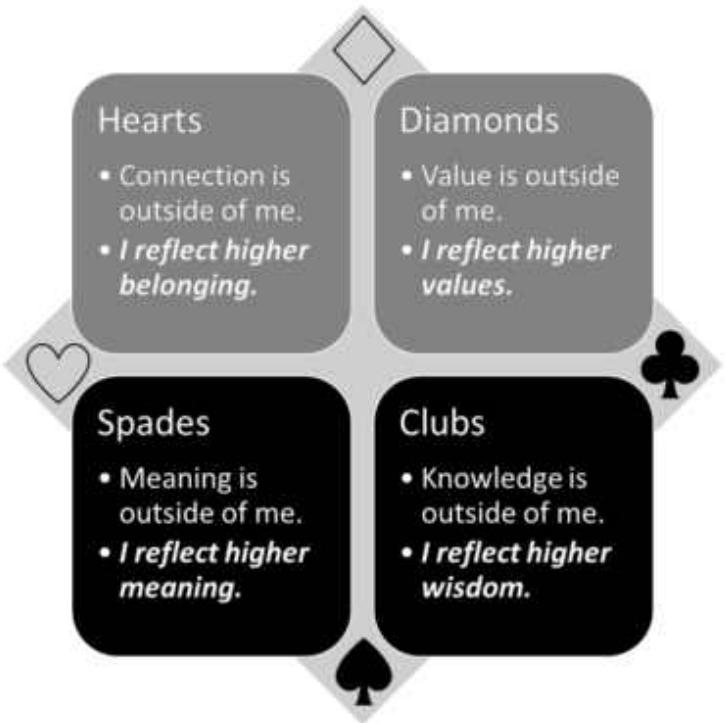

Each of the suits offers a lower and higher perspective of potential for your interpretations. To read the messages of the cards, you must be aware of the context. What is your client wanting to understand? Is your client aware of the potential growth available? Does your client believe she is separate from herself? Does your client believe he is separate from spirit? Does your client believe he is separate from what he wants? Does your client believe she is separate from her purpose?

A client's beliefs will determine how they understand the messages from the cards and what they will be able to apply to their lives. The lower side of the cards reflects the un-initiated mind that believes everything is outside of itself. The higher side of the cards reflects the initiated mind that knows that everything is happening as a reflection of themselves. However, there is a spectrum of belief systems in-between these perspectives, representing the awakening mind moving from a state of separateness to wholeness (unity). Part of your role as the reader is to allow your intuition to guide your interpretations in a way that is aligned with your client. Some clients will want more practical guidance, while others will be seeking internal transformation.

Stages of Conscious Awakening:

Life is happening to me (lower)
Life is happening for me (raising)
Life is happening through me (raising)
Life is happening as me (higher)

Here is a look at the lower and higher sides of each suit:

The Hearts

Hearts invite you to discover yourself through your relationships with others. You begin your discovery through the initial impulse to understand yourself and your most personal desires. Humans desire emotional/feeling states at the core of every material or physical manifestation. Humans want to feel good, happy, significant, joyful, nourished, and so forth. Humans seek comfort, love and play. When you pull a heart card in a reading you are being pointed back to the first relationship you experienced at birth, the one with you. You discovered your needs and reached out to the world for your needs to be met. Depending on the response you received, you learned to sooth yourself or to rely on others.

Career, while not the main focus of the suit, can call in the heart cards for guidance. When the hearts arise in a career question or position (Mars) it is often feedback about how you feel about the career in question. Do you feel safe, seen, or fully understood? Do you feel passionate and fulfilled from within or do you believe this career will be the source of your fulfillment? Do you understand your own worth or is this career a mirror for the worth you hope to feel? Some of the careers associated with the hearts are relationship or dating coaches, actors, performers, care-takers, volunteers, rescue or aid workers, and fields that are hands on with others.

In relationships, you are learning to see yourself based upon your expectations and perceptions of others. Are you looking for all of our emotional needs to be met by another? If so, you will experience the hearts as suffering, reminding you to come back to yourself, inviting you to show up in your relationships feeling and knowing you are whole. The hearts will invite you to look at relationships through this wholeness to discover if you are experiencing a relationship based on co-dependence, attachment, or fear. If so, you will be guided to explore inter-dependence (2 whole beings coming together), interconnection, and unconditional love. Hearts can also be an indication that groups of people are important to the context of your query.

To see a heart when asking about health, the effects of isolation, loneliness, or relationship wounds are the likely cause. You may have an emotional trauma (past or current) that is in need of your attention. Unprocessed grief is often associated with the suit of hearts. From a practical perspective you may experience a host of physical conditions often related to the heart, blood or immunity disorders, the nervous system, and the reproductive system.

In regards to a money or wealth question, hearts are indicative of passion and your relationship with money in your life. Do you love how you are relating to money. Do you feel victimized, bullied or controlling with money. It's time to elevate or celebrate your relationship with money when the hearts arise in any reading.

Spiritually speaking, hearts represent the potential for self love being experienced at new, deepening levels through experiences with the Divine, in yourself and all living beings. To see others in your life as spiritual and deserving of love is a breakthrough in itself.

The Clubs

Clubs invite you to explore your relationship with your mind and the impact it has on your lifestyle, career, and personal expression. The Clubs represent the intellectual impact and the nature of your belief systems. What you think about how you are feeling, what you are seeing, and what you are experiencing, is the domain of the clubs.

Career is a significant focus for this suit. as your thoughts about feelings lead to inspiration for action. What you want to contribute, how you want to contribute, and whether you feel capable of contribution is closely linked with this suit. Clubs point you to explore your thoughts, what you believe, what you learn, what you teach, what you speak, what you write, and how you choose to experience yourself as creators.

Keywords: Information, Memory, Intelligence, Intuition, Communication, Expression, Tradition, or Orthodox.

Clubs aren't about your physical capabilities, rather, your mental perceptions about them. What do you believe is right and wrong? What do you believe is realistic? What do you believe is valuable or virtuous? What do you believe is expected of you? As a career expression, clubs often point to educators, academics, science, medicine, engineering, mathematics, law, government or politics, writing, speaking and other intellectual pursuits, fields or areas of expertise.

To see a club in your reading is to be invited to consider your beliefs related to the question at hand. Are you being invited to pursue them, change them, or expand them? Clubs can also indicate commitment to an idea or a time to committing to expressing in the physical world in general. Is your thought worth your time and attention to bring it into manifestation? In a practical sense, a club can mean a meeting, conversation or piece of information is going to play a role in the answer to your question.

In relationships, clubs indicate a meeting of the minds, arguments, conversations, collaborations, teams, and contracts. Clubs invite exploration of how you relate to others points of view, values and belief systems. Is your thinking open or fixed in your response and approach with others? Are you open to learning? Are you teachable? Do you need to be the one who is right in your relationships? Are you in it to win it or do you believe in the value of collaboration and mutual benefit?

To pull a club when asking about health can be an indication that you would benefit from more information or seeking the advise of an expert or professional. You may be experiencing a mental challenge or a condition in the body based in belief. Stress, anxiety, and worry are chronic conditions associated with Clubs. Headaches, overwhelming thoughts, toothaches, and sore throats are common manifestations that Clubs represent.

In regards to a money or wealth question, clubs often indicate speculation, investing, gambling, stocks or bonds, trade, intellectual property, or funds from a court case, or money received from other intellectual pursuits. Money will often flow through your career or other lifestyle choices. Your lifestyle is a reflection of your beliefs about money or how you make money. You may have a belief that all money must come from a plan, a probable source, or from a traditional job. You may feel attached to knowing how money will come and may not embrace the natural law of infinite possibility.

Spiritually speaking, clubs are the invitation to activate your higher mind or intuition in your day to day experiences. Wisdom is not limited to what you know, it is merely a way of categorizing what we have known so far. Spirit offers you unlimited information, available at anytime to enhance and expand your perspectives. This can also be an indication of a higher calling for expression or to use your intelligence for religious or spiritual purposes.

The Diamonds

Diamonds invite you to experience your thoughts and emotions as physical events. You are learning to interact with physical creations that have been inspired by a co-creation between yourself, others and the Universe. You see, feel, touch, and taste your thoughts as they materialize in the physical world. You receive feedback from the physical world to help you create more, new and expanded "things."

Diamonds govern the world of the ten thousand things. The Taoists use this phrase to describe a physical world that is made up of mental distractions all on display for everyone to see. A busy physical world indicates a busy mental world; a peaceful world a peaceful mind. This sums up the Diamonds wonderfully.

The Diamonds are merely a reflection of what is happening in the mind, yet most querants focus solely on how to manipulate, control, or create in physical form by focusing on the physical action. The physical can only be experienced and perceived. Any changes to the physical form are fleeting and temporary without also changing the thoughts and feelings that create them.

Diamonds, while not always about career, are often associated with success. Outcomes are the domain of the Diamonds suit. When building a career, fulfillment and success is often seen as the reward for hard work. Many tend to believe, "I have been working hard and should be getting what I want." Time and time again this is an illusion and hard work tends to lead to more hard work.

Because labor is not a true measure of success, a perception of success as hard work often leads to suffering. A focus on material outcomes ignores the importance or love, personal achievement and higher purpose - all crucial ingredients. As a result, outcomes are often empty in the world of the material.

Careers focused on money usually end in sacrifice in other areas of life. Some careers associated with the Diamonds suits are builders, mechanics, surgeons, pharmaceutical, supplements, business owners, retail, corporate, financial institutions, or organizations associated with sports and travel.

A Diamond in your reading is an invitation to explore your relationship with the physical environment - your body, your home, your community and nature. Do you feel comfortable in this world of things. Do you enjoy things or resist them? Do you allow yourself time to explore what you have created? Do you celebrate the feedback you receive? Do you commune with nature and explore what you can learn from others' creations (other people and the Universe)?

In relationships, Diamonds indicate physical attraction, sexual expression, contracts, sales, partnerships. Diamonds can also point to legally binding relationships such as marriage, business partners, divorce, termination agreements, or parenting agreements. Diamond relationships are physical and contractual. Love is not the focus of the answer when Diamonds arise as the answer to a relationship question. The Diamonds offer practical feedback about how the physical attributes of a situation are or will be important.

Diamonds in regards to health can be an indication to look at a physical solution or physical cause of a condition. You may have injured yourself or are experiencing a superficial wound. You may be building or healing the body. You may be training for sports events or physical feats. Your body may be experiencing the outcome of what you have been thinking and feeling. The physical signs of beliefs are present in your body. You may be focused on physical solutions rather than emotional or spiritual solutions. Bones, skin, teeth, hair, muscles, tissue and physical appearance are common health associations with Diamonds.

In regards to a money or wealth question, diamonds often indicate how you demonstrate your wealth to others. Diamonds can refer to clothes, houses, cars and other external goals you have for your money experience. A Diamond card showing up in your reading will be associated with the physical outcome and attributes of your question. Money in hand is indicated when a Diamond shows up. Depending on the number and your question, this can be the absence of or the fulfillment of money.

Spiritually speaking, diamonds indicate the physical experiences you use to help you awaken to a spiritual understanding. Journaling, plant medicine, ceremonies, sage, crystals or divination tools are all associated with the Diamonds suit in a spiritual question. What are the tools you choose for your spiritual journey? How can the physical world help you journey within and feel safe in your body and environment. Without physical safety you may not venture into the deeper world of meaning.

The Spades

Spades invite you to discover the deeper meaning of things, people, and experiences. The Spades represent evolution out of the will of the lower mind of survival and into the higher mind of spiritual understanding, reason, and meaning. With the Spades you may discover a bigger purpose for your life and an interest in existential questions. Having a spade in a reading is an invitation to see your situation from a higher perspective, a bigger purpose, or to consider the larger impact of your experience or choices. Spades invite you to raise your conscious awareness to something beyond what you are currently thinking, feeling or experiencing.

Career is often a main theme for the spades, especially when spiritual development is not yet a priority. Spades love working and are willing to dig deeper to find the answers to things. Spades, while found in almost every line of work, are often associated with coaches, mentors, teachers, counselors, healers, shamans, spiritual guides and other similar careers.

In relationships, spades indicate a greater purpose for a union or time spent with others. A relationship in your life may be a catalyst for awakening. You can be sure that this will be a relationship with a big impact.

A spade in a health position or query can be an indication of a hereditary or chronic condition that plays a significant role in the purpose of your life. The condition you are experiencing is teaching you something and you may want to listen carefully to the message. Your condition is likely coming from another area of life that is out of sync. Address that area of life and you will often see the health condition change on it's own. Other cards in the reading can show you what area of life may be out of sync.

In regards to a money or wealth question, spades often indicate a time when focusing on a higher meaning for why you want the wealth is more important than the practical aspects of wealth creation. Money flow is being dictated by a higher purpose, related to an intention that is more important to you than money.

Spiritually speaking, spades are the invitation for the spiritualization of any situation. Spades were originally represented by an acorn, intended to represent the Divine code that is expressed from one generation to the next. It was also a message of rebirth and immortality. Everything living thing shares a replicated version of it's own DNA so that it may be reborn in the next generation. It's no wonder that big transformations, deaths, and profound awakenings tend to follow Spades.

DIVINE TIMING

SEQUENCE

The Book of Life is Time and Space

The Book of Life is a map of how you will move through the material world based on your date of birth. A person's date of birth represents a place in the field of consciousness where your spirit, soul or essence came into the manifest world. The date of birth represents one coordinate and your location in the material represents the other. The spiritual and material coordinate meet in a single location and influence the direction your life will take and which karmic lessons you will encounter on your journey through enlightenment.

Learning your spiritual coordinate empowers you to unlock your greatest gifts and strengths as you learn to embrace your challenges. The system offers a pathway to free yourself of suffering and lack, by applying the wisdom of the Book of Life to your every day life.

In the following section is the "Natural Book" also called the Spiritual Spread of cards laid out on the Grand Solar Spread (GSS). This spread represents the natural flow and order of energy beyond the dimension of time. This layouts name refers to the Solar Numbers represented for each of the cards in their divine order with their associated planetary connections. Your solar position on the Grand Solar Spread is the basis for the entire system and for your personal karmic journey. All of the spreads that follow the Spiritual spread represent the movement of time for each individual's life. The clock begins at your birth and ends at your death.

The GSS begins with position 1 and the Ace of Hearts and ends with the King of Spades in the top left corner on the "Crown Line." The cards are laid out on the Grand Solar Spread in order from right to left for 7 positions in each row. There are 8 rows and 7 columns. Each row and column represents a planetary alignment. Rows start with the first row of 7. The 3 cards at the very top are the Sun or Crown Line. These cards are the last cards and represent mastery, transformation, and fullfillment of one journey to begin the next. The first full row is the Mercury row, the second row is the Venus row, the third row is the Mars row, the forth row is the Jupiter row, the fifth row is the Saturn row, the sixth row is the Uranus row, and the seventh row is the Neptune row.

Each row intersects with a column. The columns are in the same planetary order; however, they move from right to left. This is an important distinction, based on the use of language by the ancestors of humanity, who read from right to left and not left to right like many of the languages of today. Note, the Joker is not on the spread as this position represents zero-point, the one source, the all. The Joker is an enigma and journeys outside of this ordered time and space paradigm in this lifetime. The Joker can choose to live as one of the numbers on the chart or they can pave their own path. Neither choice is right or wrong. The Joker is free to proceed as they desire, which presents it's own challenges. I have worked with a few Jokers in my practice and found that guiding them to embody the charts of all 4 Kings was helpful in finding peace in the material world of manifestation.

The Law of Divine Timing & The Collapse of Karma

The Spiritual and Life Spreads represent more than the cards in their natural and quadrated order. The spread is also a layout with intentional positions. These positions connect each card to a thinking, feeling and doing pattern that has consequences that become "karma." For the purposes of this book's discussions, Karma is defined as energy that attracts and averts outcomes.

Karma is the energetic outcome of our thoughts and feelings that become matter. Matter is a mirror of the wave patterns of energy within a body. The body creates an energy ball, referred to by the ancients as Karmans. These Karmans create an attachment to your body and the physical world of resources. These resources then travel in a stream of energy in proximity to your body. In simple terms, your thoughts and feelings have a magnetic pull that brings in the experience and you create your reality.

In the Book of Life we can predict the flow of Karmic returns and learn to interrupt Karmic patterns in favor of a life that is free from this bondage. The Book of Life teaches how to love instead of fear and to surrender to the life you came to live, so you can witness your Karma collapsing. The Book of Life points to a karma-free pattern that is available to everyone, no matter their chart.

Learning to live aligned with your chart begins with learning the Universal Law of Divine Timing so that you can read the charts and influence change in a powerful way. Many who teach and use this system do so in an attempt to control or manipulate matter without facing the inner aspects of their own (or their clients) journey. It is one thing to predict what will happen in order to soften the blows or access success, it's another to create success in alignment with who you are with the love and guidance of the chart. The later has long-term positive potential, while the former is not sustainable.

The Law of Divine Timing is a natural law that describes the flow of time and space (when, what and where). This law was channeled through an energetic connection with the author of this book and her own higher guide, Jonah. Together, over 9 months of focused intention and meditation, they developed the teachings of this law and have applied the teachings personally and professional for more than 10 years. Jonah guided the author to discover the Book of Life through a plant medicine ceremony guided by a shaman in 2012. When Divine Timing is mapped over the card system it is a precise match, exposing a simple but expansive system for unraveling time, space and karma.

Divine Timing helps you determine the precise order of events as they unfold in the seen and unseen reality. Here is a brief overview of the Divine Timing Cycle:

Awareness

Awareness is the first stage of Divine Timing. In this stage you become aware of what is next or what is ahead. You may also be faced with what you no longer want in your experience. New ideas emerge and plans begin to form for the future. This stage is associated with the Planet Mercury.

Acceptance

Acceptance is the next stage of Divine Timing. In this stage you must face what is without denial. What is happening and how do you feel about it. Are you willing to accept what "is" in a situation, event or relationship? If you aren't willing to accept it, what will you change? If you are wiling to accept it, will you forgive? This stage is associated with the Planet Venus.

Self Responsibility

Self Responsibility is the stage of Divine Timing that directly follows acceptance. When you know what you will accept you must declare your intentions, make decisions, and be willing to enact your plans. You will be nudged to talk your talk and walk your walk in full integrity with your beliefs and decisions. This is one of the most crucial stages of Divine Timing and where many will find themselves stuck or resisting the messages of the cards by failing to make a decision or respond to circumstances. This stage is associated with the Planet Mars.

Activation/Action

In this stage, you will receive feedback from the Universe in the form or experiences that you may or many not feel ready for. This is a time of receiving resources, support and catalytic circumstances that have come in to make your life better. This stage is associated with the Planet Jupiter.

Acceleration

This stage comes on the heels of Activation. Events move at their own pace during this stage. You will experience the outcomes of your past choices. This stage is directly linked with Self-Responsibility. Did you choose responsibly or did you cut corners, ignore you desires, or lie to yourself? You will find out the truth during this stage and will be given opportunities to pivot, change course completely, or forge ahead as is. This is the stage where you tend to learn the most about yourself and the world around you. This stage is associated with the Planet Saturn.

Transmutation

This is the closing of the cycle where integration of change is now your priority. In this stage you are invited to process how you feel about past events and what wisdom you will take with you to the next cycle. In this stage you reflect on your experience with the help of the higher mind or spiritual self. This state is associated with the Planet Uranus.

Integration: The Dream-Seed for the Next Cycle

This stage is where you grow your vision for the next cycle. Here you apply the wisdom of the last cycle to a new dream or vision for the future. Who do you want to be now? You are exploring a new intention and preparing for the next cycle of development and advancement to begin. This stage is associated with the Planet Neptune.

Quadrating to the Life Spread

The Life Spread is the result of the beginning of the Divine Timing Cycle that starts at the moment of birth. To determine the start of this Divine Timing journey and all subsequent stages of time (yearly spreads) the Natural/Spiritual Spread is shuffled in a precise method. Quadrating is beyond the scope of this book. Instead we will provide all of the shuffled spreads for you to utilize in your readings.

The Life Spread, seen on the following page, is the first shuffle. This first shuffle results in a spread that represents step one of the life pattern no matter which reading you are interpreting. Your thinking, feeling, doing, and growth patterns are all determined from this spread.

Below is an empty Grand Solar Spread representing the positions only. This shows the order of movement for each quadration. The 45 mobile cards will move from one position to the next over 91 spreads, coming back again to repeat the cycle until the lesson of Karma has been realized.

Karma Cards - Life

Lifetime Environment: The card that "sits" in your Spiritual Spread "home" in the Life Spread. Receive From.

Underlying Karma: The Lifetime Environment of your Environment card. Receive From.

Lifetime Displacement: Where your card sits in the Life Spread; the card that is "home" to this position on the Spiritual Spread. Give To.

The Lifetime Displacement of your Displacement card. Give To.

Karma Cards - Annual

You have 2 additional Karma Cards each birth year. These cards help you remain accountable to your mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual growth as you progress through your chart. The 45 non-fixed cards move to a new position on the Life Spread each year. As a result, your Birthcard will displace a new card from the Life Spread each year. The card you replace on the Life Spread each year becomes an additional Displacement Karma Card for that year. The card that displaces you is an additional Environment Karma Card for that year.

The following page provides a visual representation of the annual Karma cycle for the 45 non-fixed cards. Find any non-fixed card on the wheel and turn the wheel so that the number is right-side up as you look at it. To the left of the card is the path of the Annual Environment card. Count each card to the left until you reach the age of the person. This will be the current Environment card for that year. Note that the circle repeats every 45 years, so you can adjust your count if the person is over 45. To find the Displacement card you move to the right of the wheel. For example, the Environment and Displacement cards for the 3 of Spades at age 49 are the 5 of Spades and the 10 of Spades respectively. See if you find the same answer.

FIXED & SEMI-FIXED

CARDS

Fixed Cards

This family of cards shares a special relationship. The Fixed and the Semi-Fixed cards are the only cards in the Book of Life that do not travel the Magic Circle of Karma. Instead, these cards are karmic influences for one another. They will never have an environment or displacement relationship with any other card. These cards represent the elements of the fixed patterns that are useful for all humans to embody as we learn to create our own reality.

King of Spades

The Fixed cards consist of the King of Spades, the Jack of Hearts, and the 8 of Clubs. These cards never move from their position on the Life Spread. The King of Spades maintains the final position in the spread which is also the Crown line position for the Saturn column. The King of Spades is at the pinnacle of leadership and responsibility. To master his journey he must accept the qualities of the Jack of Hearts and the 8 of Clubs. These two cards are equal karmic influences for the King of Spades. We interpret these karmic influences as both "giving to" and "receiving from" the King.

Jack of Hearts

The Jack of Hearts holds the position on the Venus line and Jupiter column. The Jack is the representative of unconditional love, Christ Consciousness, and service to the world. For the Jack to fulfill their purpose requires the release of self sacrifice by embracing the characteristics of the King of Spades and the 8 of Clubs.

8 of Clubs

The 8 of Clubs sits at the convergence of the Mars line and the Neptune column as the dream weaver of the spread. The 8 of Clubs is willing to do what is required to achieve their goals; however, must overcome monotony or complacency by focusing on a higher meaning and love for their actions. This is experienced when they embrace the characteristics of their karma, the Jack of Hearts and the King of Spades.

These three cards will remain karmically connected throughout their lives and find themselves drawn to one another. They will also feel connected to the Semi-Fixed cards (on the following page), as they serve the role of a secondary karmic influence or "karmic cousin."

Semi Fixed Cards

A♣ 2♡ 7♢ 9♡

The Semi-Fixed cards are the Ace of Clubs, the 2 of Hearts, the 7 of Diamonds, and the 9 of Hearts. These cards do not experience the same independence as the Fixed cards. The have an inter-dependent relationship with one card their entire lives and are viewed as twins or pairs in the deck. It is often difficult for a person with a Semi-Fixed card to know themselves fully without embracing the qualities of both cards. Most of the time, people choose to live as one of the cards and try to resist the qualities of the other card and continue to feel like they do not belong or cannot be fully understood. This brings identity and a sense of self into the forefront of their personal development.

Pair #1: Ace of Clubs & 2 of Hearts

This pair offers the world the pathway to the expression of self awareness through relationships with the world. The Ace of Clubs reminds us to focus on our own message and truth and the 2 of Hearts reminds us that we cannot truly see ourselves without connecting with other humans. Our alignment much first be with ourselves and then we can witness ourselves in our relationships with others. The 2 of Hearts will mirror to the Ace of Clubs the importance of love, and the Ace of Clubs will mirror to the 2 of Hearts the importance of self awareness. We are not intended to be a copy of the other person in our relationship. We are intended to be the expression of ourselves with others.

Pair #2: 7 of Diamonds & 9 of Hearts

This pair offers the world the pathway of satisfaction in material wealth and wellbeing. The 7 of Diamonds reminds us to focus on raising our value by seeing our value more each moment and the 9 of Hearts reminds us to focus on the fulfillment of our inner most wishes to express love. Love is the expression of value; our highest value is love. The 7 of Diamonds will mirror to the 9 of Hearts the importance of giving higher value into the world through the physical body and material expression, and the 9 of Hearts will mirror to the 7 of Diamonds the importance of filling the body with the felt sensation of Love from the source of all Divine Energy so that Love is what is given through the body to the world.

Planetary Card Sequence

All 52 of the core cards on the Spiritual and Life Spreads have a close association with their nearby cards - horizontally, vertically, and diagonally. These cards represent distinct thinking, feeling, and action cycles. These cards represent experiences, people, and timing for events. These cards are represented by planets, which help you interpret potential impact for any period of time as big as a lifetime and as small as a day. For this course we will focus on the Lifetime, 7-Year, and Annual cycles.

Planetary Cards for Life

HORIZONTAL

Our planetary cycle for life includes 14 horizontal cards, 7 vertical cards, and multiple diagonal cards that vary from card to card. The horizontal cards have the strongest influence on the cycle, the vertical cards play a supporting role, and the diagonals have a, almost, negligible influence on the cycle. Diagonal cards are often referenced in relationship readings as they often represent the other birth cards that we attract to us during some cycles of life.

Horizontal Life Cards: Moon, Sun Card, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto and 4 unknown Planets represented by the Cosmic Result, Cosmic Lesson, Cosmic Moon, and Transformational Self.. According to our ancestors, these planets exist but have not yet been discovered.

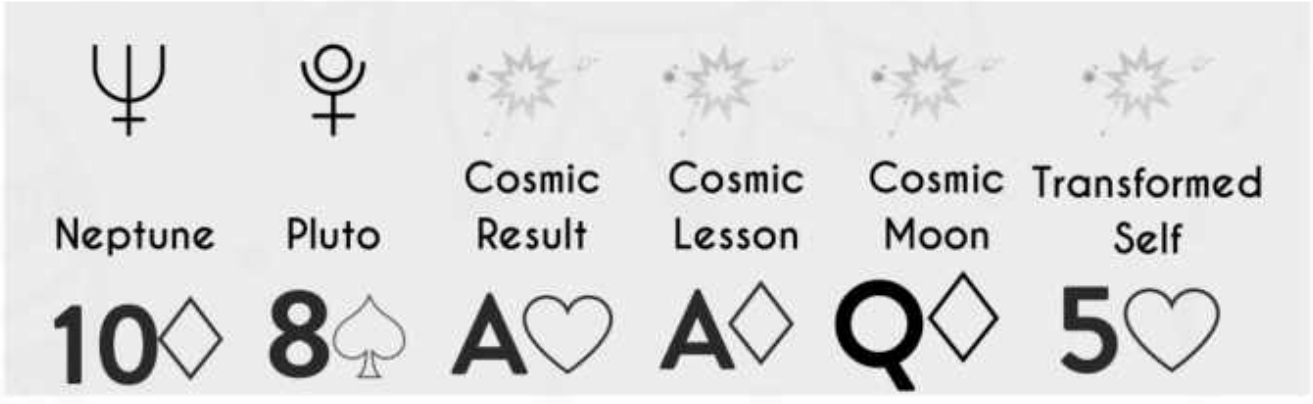

MOON	The Card to the Right of the Sun Card on the Life Spread
SUN	This is the Birth Card
MERCURY-NEPTUNE	The 7 cards to the left of the Sun Card in order, starting with the card directly to the left of the Sun card; Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune
PLUTO	The 8th card, directly following the Neptune card. This is the key breakthrough to the life chart and the karmic story for this person's life journey.
COSMIC RESULT	The 9th card to the left of the Sun Card
COSMIC LESSON	The 10th card to the left of the Sun Card

Planetary Cards for Life

VERTICAL

Vertical Life Cards: Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune

MERCURY-NEPTUNE	The 7 cards directly above the Sun Card in order, starting with the card directly above the Sun card; Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune. When there are no cards above, the planets continue at the bottom of the same column as the Sun card. The last card in the vertical row will be directly below the Sun Card or the very top card in the column (depending on the Sun card).

DIAGONAL

Diagonal Life Cards: Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, and Uranus. There are no Diagonal Neptune cards.

RULER

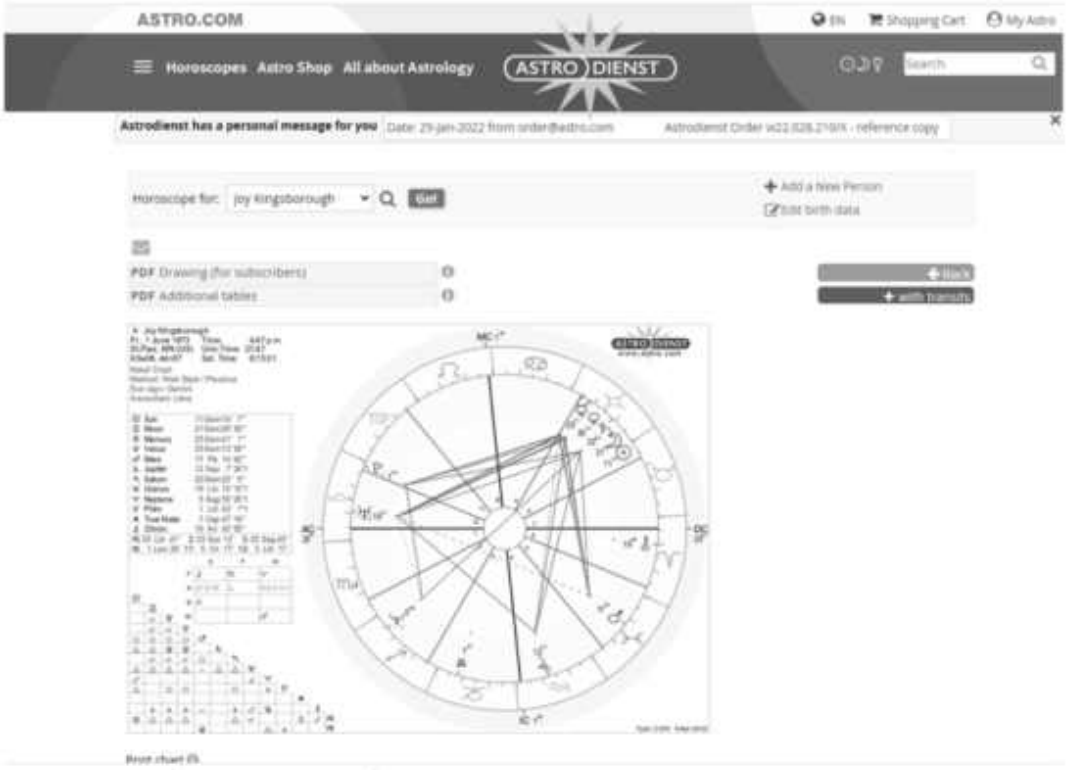

DECANATE RULING CARD

The Decanate card is your second planetary ruler, called a sub-ruler, that is unique to your birthday. This card rules over your relationships and can attract powerful allies and partners into your life. To find your Decanate card you will need to know the exact date, time and location of your birth.

To discover you Decanate Card, first you must access your zodiac wheel to determine your "Ascendant." You can do that for free at:
https://www.astro.com/free/free_chart_e.htm
Select, "Chart drawing, Ascendant"

Once you have your chart, it will look something like this:

Find the exact degree of your Sun Sign.

The Sun Sign example above is for June 1, 1973 at 4:47 PM in St. Paul, Minnesota, North America. The Sun Card for this chart is the 3 of Spades and the Astrological Sun Sign is Gemini. You will notice on the chart above, this birthtime puts this chart at 11 degrees Gemini. This is the information we need to find the Decanate card.

In Western Astrology, each zodiac sign is measured in 30 degree increments, with 3 sub-rulers, called Decans, governing10 degrees of the zodiac sign. Your Decan will be in the1st 10 degrees, the 2nd 10 degrees, or the 3rd 10 degrees. Each degree is measured as 0-60. The1st Decan is 0-9.59 degrees; the 2nd Decan is 10-19.59; the 3rd Decan is 20 - 29.59. Which Decan is 11 degrees?

If you determined that 11 degrees is the 2nd Decan you have it correct. Our example above is the 2nd Decan of Gemini.

The chart below will help you determine which sub-ruler or Decan governs each of the 10 degrees for each zodiac sign. Find the Decan for Gemini at 11 degrees on the chart below:

DECANATE CHART

Sun Sign	1st Decan 0-9.59	2nd Decan 10-19.59	3rd Decan 20 - 29.59

Virgo	Virgo	Capricorn	Taurus
Libra	Libra	Aquarius	Gemini
Scorpio	Scorpio	Pisces	Cancer
Sagittarius	Sagittarius	Aries	Leo
Capricorn	Capricorn	Taurus	Virgo
Aquarius	Aquarius	Gemini	Libra
Pisces	Pisces	Cancer	Scorpio

If you found Libra, you are correct.

Once you have the Decan from the chart above you will be able to match that to the Life Spread in the Book of Life the same way you find your Planetary Ruler. The chart on the following page will help you find the Decanate Card that is associated with the Decan.

PERSONALITY

CARDS

Personality Cards

Our Personality Cards are represented by the Court Cards of the suit of our Birth Card. For example, if your Birth Card is a 2 of Spades, your personality cards are the Jack, Queen and King of Spades. These Personality Cards reflect aspects of our personality that emerge as we mature, develop, and express our purpose in the world. These cards help us experience more success in specific roles. Below is a quick reference for using these cards in your readings and how you might interpret them.

If you have a Fixed or Semi-Fixed Birth Card you may use the King, Queen, or Jack as an additional influence for contracts and yearly events. Exploring the yearly Environment and Displacement of these cards can help you interpret potential areas of growth for these cards.

THE KINGS

Review the chart of the King related to the suit of the person you are reading for. Use the same annual spread as the Birthcard.

In Entrepreneurship: Any sex or gender

Example: If you are reading for a Woman who is curious about a business deal and she is the owner or CEO you may find useful information about the potential for the deal in the annual chart of the King.

In Love: Anyone identifying as male

Example: If you are reading for a Man who is curious about a romantic relationship you may find useful information about the relationship in the chart of the King.

In a Lifespread or Card Reading: This card may show up as a literal reference to your father, father-figure, or someone you identify as an authority in your life.

THE QUEENS

Review the chart of the Queen related to the suit of the person you are reading for. Use the same annual spread as the Birthcard.

Primary Care Giver: Any sex or gender

Example: If you are wondering about becoming a parent or are having challenges with your role as a caretaker you may find useful information in the chart of the Queen for the suit of the querant.

In Love: Anyone identifying as a female

Example: If you are reading for a Woman who is curious about leaving a marriage you may find useful information about the relationship in the chart of the Queen.

In an Annual Lifespread or Card Reading: This card may show up as a literal reference to your mother, mother-figure or other care giver in your life.

THE JACKS

Review the chart of the Queen related to the suit of the person you are reading for. Use the same annual spread as the Birthcard.

The Child 0-21 (First 3 Cycles of 7): Any sex or gender

Example: If you are reading for a person with questions about their child. You would read the Jack Spread related to suit of the child.

In Love: Gender Non-Specific

For those who do not identify with the male or female sex/gender perspective may find useful information about this person or their relationship. This can also show up for a younger person in a relationship.

In an Annual Lifespread or Card Reading: This card may show up as a literal reference to a child, teen or someone operating with more frivolity, or someone with a non-specific gender identity in your life. They may have a level of immaturity in the material world (a young soul or young mind).

Time & The Spreads

Each Life Spread, 0-91, governs time like a wheel. A single spread represents increments of time, measured in 7's, also known as the planetary, Divine Timing sequence or pattern. All increments of time can be measured using this pattern to determine what events may unfold, when they might unfold, and who might be involved. Deciphering for any time-frame is the same as you have done with the Life Spread, using planetary seasons or cycles. There is one significant difference between the Life Spread and other time-frames: we progress beyond the Life Spread, using 90 additional spreads that have been calculated using a precise shuffle of the cards, called quadrating (beyond the scope of this book).All of the pre-quadrated spreads can be viewed at the end of this book.

When calculating time-frames, each spread captures 7 segments of time (minutes, hours, days, weeks, or years) and then continues on the next spread, infinitely as far forward or backward as needed. The only limiters are birth and death; otherwise, the reading time-frame potential is limitless.

For this course you will be focusing on 1 Year, 7 Year, 13 Year and Lifetime time frames. When you are forecasting any length of time, except the 13 Year or Lifetime, you will use a guiding card to understand the frame of mind that is influencing the person being read for. This card is called a Long Range Card and is a prominent card within other time frames. Remember, the Book of Life is layered, helping us to interpret the fractal, non-linear experience we have with time in the mind. For example, an event in childhood at age 7 will be inherently connected to the events that unfold every 7 years from that moment. If the event is traumatic and unresolved it will intensify in impact. If the event is healed the fractal cycle will end. If the event was welcome, it will repeat as well. This reveals a great deal about the nature of Karma.

The following section will you through locating a 1 year or 7 year Long Range card.

Long Range Cards

To locate the Long Range Card for any reading you must first decide which reading you are doing. Next you will need to familiarize yourself with the 90 Quadrated Spreads listed in the back of this book. Each spread represents time as it evolves, as the Earth rotates into a new position with the sun, as your mind transits through the Divine Timing Pattern minute by minute, hour by hour, day by day, year by year and so. Each spread represents 7 units of time, beginning with 1. For each increment of 7 that follows the first you progress to the next spread in order until you reach spread 91. If you need more time you continue with Spread 0, the Life Spread. Each increment of time is represented by the 7 Planet Divine Timing Sequence: Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune, and will take on the influence of these planets for interpretation purposes. This is important to understanding how to read the spreads for different timeframes in a reading.

The example below is for the 4 of Clubs. To locate the long range card for each year of life you would begin with the first spread. You can see the first 49 years of Long Range Cards below:

1 YEAR PLANETS

Planetary Cards for the Year

To complete a 1 year reading you will use the Long Range Card from the previous section as a guide for the reading. You will then review the Planetary Cards from the annual spread to determine:

- Divine Timing of Events: What order to expect conditions to change and in what order you can influence best results. Divine Timing for a 1 Year reading is 52 days per Planetary period or season. You will find a reference chart at the end of this section.
- Contracts of people who may play a role in your year.
- Types of events that may be influencing your overall lessons, challenges, and blessings for the year.
- Life Contracts that may be ready for healing, release or activation, including past and present karmic patterns.

EXAMPLE: 1 YEAR SPREAD
4 of Clubs, Age 21, Mercury Year, Spread 22

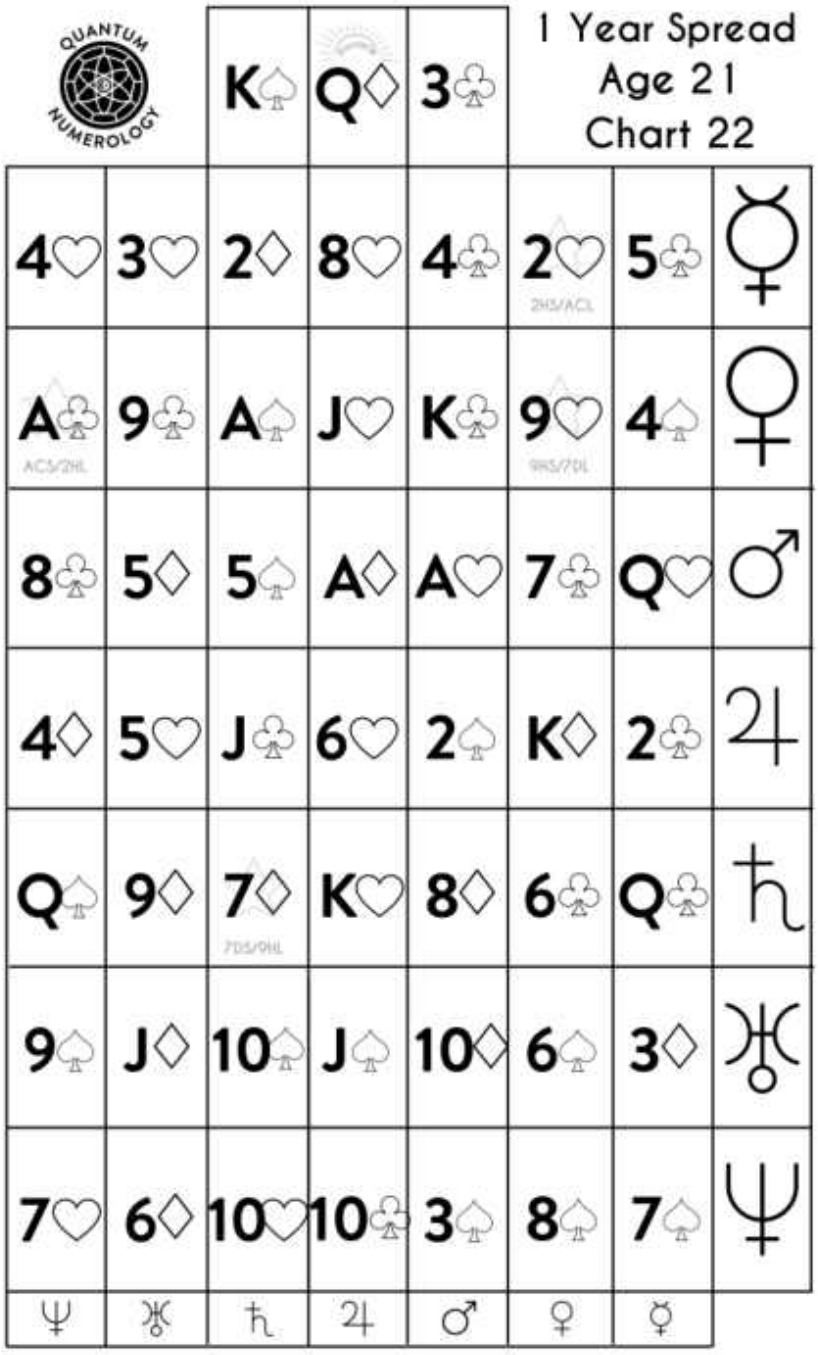

*December 31 is not included in the count and is simply an extra day within the cycle wherever it may fall for each birthdate.
Annual Environment & Displacement cards are located by Life Spread Only. Locate the position of the Sun Card on the annual spread for the age of the reading. Refer to the Life Spread (Spread 1) to find the card that owns that position for life. This is the Annual Displacement. Now, locate the card that is in the Sun Cards Life Spread position for the age and spread of the reading. This is the Annual Environment.

Planetary Cards for the Year

To locate the Planetary cards for the year you will locate the quadrated spread for the current year and find the Horizontal and Vertical cards for the 7 Divine Timing Cycle planets and the Pluto & Result cards from the Horizontal. You locate them with the same method as the Life Spread by locating the position of the Sun Card on the current spread.

Compare the chart on the previous page with the annual spread below.

Exceptions: December 31 is not included in the day count.
The season with December 31 will have 53 total days.

7 YEAR PLANETS

Planetary Cards for the 7 Year

To complete a 7 year reading you will use the Long Range Card from the previous section as a guide for the reading. You will then review the Planetary Cards from the 7 year spread to determine:

- Divine Timing of Events: What order to expect conditions to change and in what order you can influence best results over 7 years. Divine Timing for a 7 Year reading is 1 year per Planetary period or season.
- Contracts of people who may play a role in your 7 year.
- Types of events that may be influencing your overall lessons, challenges, and blessings for the 7 year period.
- Life Contracts that may be ready for healing, release or activation, including past and present karmic patterns.
- Compare 1 year spreads to the 7 year spread for more insights.

EXAMPLE: 7 YEAR SPREAD
4 of Clubs, Ages 21-27, Jupiter Cycle, Spread 4

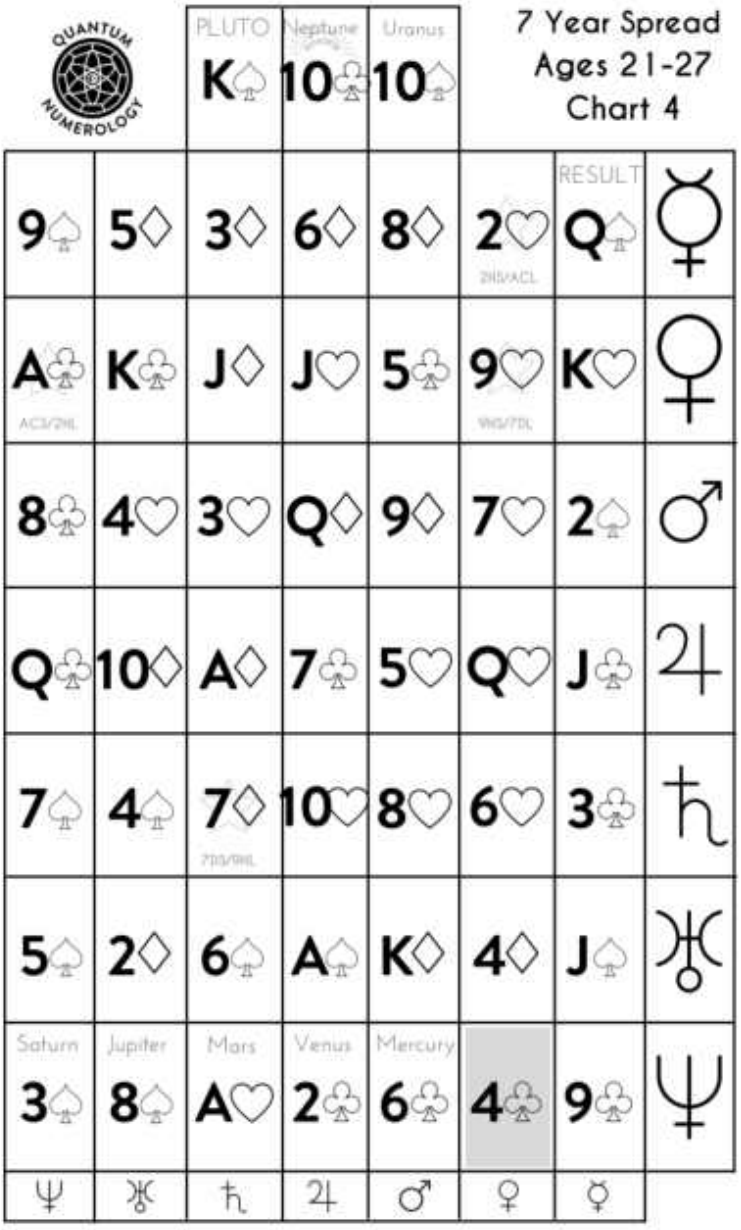

*December 31 is not included in the count and is simply an extra day within the cycle wherever it may fall for each birthdate.
Annual Environment & Displacement cards are located by Life Spread Only. Locate the position of the Sun Card on the annual spread for the age of the reading. Refer to the Life Spread (Spread 1) to find the card that owns that position for life. This is the Annual Displacement. Now, locate the card that is in the Sun Cards Life Spread position for the age and spread of the reading. This is the Annual Environment.

Planetary Cards for 7 Years

To locate the Planetary cards for a 7 year reading you will locate the quadrated spread for the Annual LONG RANGE Spread for that age. The 4 of Clubs at Age 21 is used for this example. As you did with the 1 year reading, you will find the Horizontal and Vertical cards for the 7 Divine Timing Cycle planets and the Pluto & Result cards from the Horizontal.

Note: The spread you use for the Planetary cards will match the sequential 7 year cycle you are reading. The 1st 7 year cycle (0-6) will coincide with Spread 1 (age 0), the 2nd (7-13)with Spread 2 (age 1), the 3rd (14-20) with Spread 3 (Age 2) and so on.

Compare the chart on the previous page with the spread below.

Readings

13 YEAR PLANETS

13 Year Transit Cycle

Each card has a 13 year transit cycle that helps you determine the larger cycles in a persons life. This is high level view that will offer perspective about larger karmic influences that may be at play. This reading uses the same cards as the Life Time Cards. The biggest difference between interpretations for the 13 Year and Lifetime is perspective. In the 13 Year you can predict timing of events related to a person's lifetime chart. These are interpreted as higher spiritual goals for a person's lifetime. The 13 Year reading can also provide insight about the nature of the experience a person may have relative to the planetary cycle they are living from this timeframe.

Use the following cards from the Lifetime Spread.
Note: There are no Long Range Cards or Karma Cards
